

STUART SHAPIRO

EDUCATION

Harvard University - John F. Kennedy School of Government

Ph.D. in Public Policy. June 1999.

Dissertation Title: Speed Bumps and Roadblocks: Procedural Controls and Regulatory Change.

Master's in Public Policy. June 1995.

Case Western Reserve University

Bachelor's of Science in Chemical Engineering. May 1990.

APPOINTMENTS

Rutgers – The State University of New Jersey -- Edward J Bloustein School Of Planning And Public Policy July 2003-Present Assistant Professor

Georgetown University – Government Department September 2002- January 2003 Adjunct Professor

United States Department of Agriculture Graduate School January, 1999 – April 2003 Instructor

Office of Management and Budget – Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs July 1998- June 2003. Policy Analyst, Assistant Branch Chief.

Harvard University – Kennedy School of Government September 1994-June 1998 Research Assistant, Tutor, Teaching Fellow.

Environmental Protection Agency—Acid Rain Division June-September 1994 NNEMS Fellow.

E.I. Du Pont de Nemours & Company July 1990- August 1993. Manufacturing Engineer, Environmental Engineer.

HONORS AND RECOGNITION

Received Rutgers Research Council Grant – 2004, 2005
Office of Management and Budget Performance Awards, 1999-2002.
Public Policy Departmental Fellowship, Kennedy School.
Dean's Honor Scholarship, Case Western Reserve University.

FIVE RELEVANT PUBLICATIONS

Shapiro, Stuart. “The Role of Procedural Controls in the Ergonomics Rulemaking”
Public Administration Review (forthcoming)

Shapiro, Stuart “Unequal Partners: Cost Benefit Analysis and Executive Review of Regulations” Environmental Law Reporter (July 2005) 35:10433.

Coglianesi, Cary, Stuart Shapiro, and Steven Balla “Unifying Rulemaking Information: Recommendations for the New Federal Docket Management System” Administrative Law Review (Spring 2005).

Shapiro, Stuart “Speed Bumps and Roadblocks: Procedural Controls and Regulatory Change.” Journal of Public Administration Research and Theory (January 2002)

Shapiro, Stuart. “Politics and Regulatory Policy Analysis” Regulation (March 2006).

ADDITIONAL PUBLICATION

Shapiro, Stuart. “Two Months in the Life of the Regulatory State” Administrative and Regulatory Law News (Spring 2005).

SYNERGISTIC ACTIVITIES

Submitted public comments on OMB Proposed Bulletin on Guidance Documents

Submitted public comments on OMB Proposed and Revised Bulletins on Peer Review and Information Quality

Submitted (with Cary Coglianesi and Steven Balla) letter to OMB on recommendations for Federal Docket Management System signed by over 50 scholars.

Evaluator for “Innovations in American Government” Award Program, 1997.

Helped develop curriculum for Kennedy School core statistics course.

OTHER COLLABORATORS WITHIN PAST 48 MONTHS

David Guston, Arizona State University.